DELHI, INDIA

MAJOR “BHAV HITS” DURING THE 2023 YOLO YATRA ARE GOING TO BE:

- Diwali in Varanasi. The oldest festival (7000 years) in the oldest living city (3000 years); the epicentre of Hindu spirituality.
- Goddess Shakti Peeths (temple vortexes) in Bengal and Varanasi.
- Dips in the Narmada river (older than Ganges) with sacred chanting to the river Goddess.
- Satsangs with sages (this is a BFD; I will translate for everyone).
- Homas and Pujas by Ram, chief priest of the Omkareshwar Jyotirlinga temple as well as other priests such as the Gayatri temple.
- Manoj’s workshops on “Mytho-travel” in sacred settings such as ghats, temples, river banks.
- Joyful Jai Ma Kirtan, Yoga and Meditation.
- Feed cows in a Goshala of 108 cows at Gayatri temple and play with dogs, the divine vehicle of Bhairava.
- Stay in the best hotel at every pilgrimage place (I’m used to motel 6 in America, but in India my fluffy ass needs clean, luxury in India).
- Many Zoom teachings over several months prior to the Yatra, active what’s app groups for logistical issues; the 2022 Yolo Yatra group got very tight because of WhatsApp and Zoom.

SNEAK PEAK

- Pre Yatra (“Deity Possession” in Himachal. Never been done before!)
- Post Yatra (Marry your “Self” in Rajasthan.)

CHAT WITH MANOJ

This pilgrimage is intended to take your experiential understanding about yoga, Bhakti and Jnana to another level, but to get the most out of it requires a deep commitment and openness to new experiences. I would love to have a one on one chat with you to discuss if this Yatra is the right step to take at this time in your journey.

MANOJ'S MUSINGS

Rather than running around from place to place with our vata going nuts, we are going to take a spiritual deep dive into 4 sacred Areas

- Narmada river: Maheshwar and Omkareshwar
- Ganges river: Bengal and Varanasi (Along with spiritual shallower dives in Indore and Delhi)

My humorous approach to the whole India Yatra is an attempt to take us all into a spiritual meta-cognitive state to skillfully dance between the karmic raindrops. And dance and sing we will, just like during the 2022 Yolo Yatra - 33 peeps totally exploded into the Bhav with transcendental experiences, and by the end 5000+ experiences were shared through pictures and videos.

DR. MANOJ CHALAM

Manoj (people call him a spiritual standup comedian) uses a uniquely entertaining, interactive story telling style using Hindu/Buddhist deities in his workshops to illuminate Bhakti practices as well as deep non-dual philosophy. He teaches at festivals, yoga events, his ashram and whoever wants to listen.

Manoj uses these deity archetypes to help people in their hero's journey as elucidated by Joseph Campbell and Carl Jung. An Indian-born scientist with a PhD in Chemical engineering from Cornell University, Manoj helps individuals find their archetypes in Hindu/Buddhist Yogic deities and teaches the 5 practices to work with their archetype as a spiritual practice. He has also compiled a book on the symbolisms of these deity archetypes.

Manoj is in the business of storytelling to inspire people. He has many YouTube videos with deity statues as a compelling media to tell stories. Manoj was interviewed by the Ram Dass foundation for their podcast on "The Deities". Manoj, Kurt, Jack and Beth have created an "online ashram" under Patreon. Under Murtis and Vedanta Youtube Chanel.

Manoj teaches workshops at a physical ashram in his home in San Diego called Sakhya Bhava Ashram (where the divine is your friend). Manoj's workshops are usually 70% lecture/group exercises, 15% archetypal deity yoga meditations, 10% Mantra chantings and 5% light spiritual stretches.
